DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. The priority statement should be updated to reflect the current status of the priority documents.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 19-20 and 24-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by EP 776925.

“925 teaches applying a coating composition that comprises TEOS or TMOS, a fluorosilane, oxalic acid, alcohol such as methanol and a metal compound such as magnesium fluoride, to a substrate such as glass, and then drying at RT to 80 degrees C (2:52-5:17).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1762

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 21-23 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over EP 776925.

'925 is applied here for the reasons given above.

'925 teaches heating the coating after drying, at a temperature of 100-450 degrees C, which overlaps with applicant's claimed heating range.

'925 does not teach the relative humidity of the drying process, but it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have optimized the relative humidity because relative humidity is known to be a controlling parameter in drying.

'925 does not teach one of the acids of Claim 27, but it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have substituted one of those acids for the oxalic acid of '925 with the expectation of equivalent results.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 28-36 are allowed.

7. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art does not disclose nor suggest applying the water repellent coating composition of Claim 28 to a surface to make it water repellent.

Art Unit: 1762

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
